

Grant Baergen, Principal
Riverside Regional High School

Native of Alberta, Grant Baergen completed his Bachelor of Education in 1984 in Edmonton. He taught two years of secondary school and one year of primary school before settling down in Alma in 1987.

Mr. Baergen pursued a career as an English literature teacher at the Saguenay Valley School for five years before becoming the principal in 1993. He completed his master's degree in Public Administration at ENAP in 1997.

In 1998, the Saint Patrick and Saguenay Valley (Arvida) Schools merged to form the regional Riverside Schools. Mr. Baergen still holds the position of principal at the public secondary school which consists of 175 students, 15 teachers and 10 support staff members. A member of the Central Quebec School Board, Riverside Regional High School is proud of each of its member's sense of belonging as well as the success rate of its students.

Now a father of three children and a stepfather of two, Mr. Baergen married the woman of his dreams in the summer of 2009. He likes to spend his free time playing tennis, renovating his house with his wife, training and spending time with his family.
