

Marc Fortin has been an audit partner at the Saguenay office of Samson Bélair/Deloitte & Touche since 1985. In 2009, he was appointed associate market leader for the region of Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean. He serves a substantial clientele consisting mostly of businesses in manufacturing or in the subcontracting and retail trades.

Mr. Fortin completed his university studies at the University of Quebec in Chicoutimi and has worked for Samson Bélair/Deloitte & Touche for the length of his career.

In addition to being a business consultant for major manufacturing businesses as well as for regional SMEs, primarily for purchasing and selling contracts, business mergers and financing, Mr. Fortin is also involved in several social organizations in the region.
