

Michel Gravel, Executive Director
Cégep de Jonquière

---

Michel Gravel holds a Ph. D. in Education, a Master's degree in Educational Administration and is the Executive Director of the Cégep de Jonquière. Prior to this position, he has been the Executive Director of the Lac-Saint-Jean School Board, a professor in educational administration at UQAC, a school principal and a teacher. He is the author of several works and articles on the subject of education and management. He was recognized in 2007 by the Ordre du mérite de la Fédération des commissions scolaires and in 2001 by the Ordre de la reconnaissance de la Fédération québécoise des directrices et directeurs d'établissement.

It should be noted that the Cégep de Jonquière presently has 3 400 students in academic education, of which 70% are registered in the technical stream. The college places students, youth or adult, at the heart of their passions. Open to the world and equipped with state-of-the-art technology, the target is excellence in every educational endeavour. In cooperation with local organizations, the Cégep de Jonquière is an active contributor to regional development.
