

Robert Bilodeau, President
Regional Tourist Association of Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean

Owner of Auberge Presbytère Mont Lac-Vert since 2001, Robert Bilodeau has been a dedicated community man for over 30 years.

Interested in taking on challenges, he is involved in various organizations related to sports, education and tourism. He was in turn founding member of the Motorcycle Club of Lac-Saint-Jean East, as well as of the Roberval Triathlon and the Gami Swimming Club of Roberval. Thereafter he was a school commissioner and Vice-Chairman of the Pays-des-Bleuets School Board, in addition to sitting on the board of directors of the Véloroute des Bleuets.

An innkeeper since 2001, he has become active in snowmobile clubs, and is also responsible for Trans-Québec trail # 23 which connects the Étape rest stop to the municipality of Hébertville. He is also Director and President of the Tourist Association of Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean. Through his duties, he also sits on the board of directors of the ATR associées du Québec, as well as on the different sectoral working groups.

According to Mr. Bilodeau, it is important to get involved in order to contribute to the development of the Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean region.
