

Yvon Bergeron, President
Saguenay en Neige

A telephony technician since 1977, Mr. Bergeron worked mainly with junior hockey in Jonquière as a volunteer as well as a team manager for almost 30 years. Over the years, he has been involved at various levels in different social and sports activities, such as the Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean Senior Fastpitch Softball team, the Traversée internationale du lac St-Jean, the Bell Science Fair, Operation Red Nose and a few other foundations. As a sign of recognition for his community involvement, in 2007 he was awarded the Bell Alliant Community Spirit Award. Mr.

Bergeron currently sits on the board of directors for the Festival de la chanson de St-Ambroise. He is also Chairman of the board of directors for Saguenay en Neige.

According to Mr. Bergeron: "Saguenay en Neige is proud to take part in cultural development. Saguenay's nomination as Cultural Capital of Canada will provide many artists with the opportunity to flourish in the captivating setting of the Parc de la Rivière-aux-Sables from January 28th to February 7th, 2010. They will join the team of snow sculptors in offering their creations to the entire population."
